Whaleship "Wanderer" under full sail. This famous Mattapoisett built vessel made the last whaling voyage of the area and was wrecked in the attempt on the rocks of Cuttyhunk. The mizzenmast is now undergoing repairs after being struck by lightning 2 weeks ago. This mast was salvaged from the wreck and erected on Marine Park as a flagpole about 1930.

We have a limited number of photo enlargements on hand of this old "Wanderer" photo. They are 16 x 20 inches and are for sale.

REGIONAL AMENDMENT PROPOSED

Mr. William McLaughlin of the Marion School Committee presented the report of a meeting with Mr. John Hadgdon of the Massachusetts Building Assistance Commission to the school committees of the 3 towns at a meeting held last Thursday night. He reported that the State has virtual control over educational policy now and will probably expand their scope. He said, "the State dictates curricula, length of the school day, bussing rules, teachers' base pay, changes in educational programs and changes in the length of the school year, etc. The group which went to Boston were told that local control is primarily concerned with policy and personality and that the towns' option has a minimal impact on the tax rate.

Mr. McLaughlin said that the State informed Marion that it can't build classrooms for its seventh grade even though they wanted to relieve both school problems with one building. Marion can only concern itself with the kindergarten through sixth grade.

The State suggests that the Regional control be extended through grade 5 in all 3 towns. This would enable Marion to build a building to house grade 7 students. As an additional inducement, a 15% extra State reimbursement is offered representing $11,000 per classroom. Since Rochester has stated that it can't afford to build a new school, and Mattapoisett has already built the Old Hammondtown School to take care of its pupils, neither town is prepared to build a new middle school. Marion intends to build a school, either regionally or locally and do it either way without financial assistance from Rochester or Mattapoisett.

They would like to do it under the Regional agreement because they feel that they would get the most for the money, remove grades 7 and 8 from Old Rochester and do it with one building. This building would be more expensive under the Regional plan since it must be built for extensive expansion. They hope that this greater cost will be offset by the extra 15% reimbursement which is the inducement to extend the regionalization to grade 5.

The Regional School District's extension to 5th grade level will have to be presented to the 3 towns in the form of a second amendment. Some of the points which will be discussed are these: if the region is extended from grades 5 to 12, then the Regional School Committee will have the right to move pupils to schools in any of the three towns at will under Section II. Section III calls for leasing Old Hammondtown School to the region. The same Section III authorizes the lease of Memorial School building in Rochester.

The control of such leasing would be under arrangement and control of each town's Selectmen.

It was suggested that a majority vote of the Regional School Committee be changed to require a 3/4 vote when children are moved within the 3-town district. This was put to a vote and 10 voted yes and 6 no. The suggestion will be considered.

The capital cost for the "middle school" is apportioned at Marion 98%, Mattapoisett 1% and Rochester 1%. Future enrollment from Mattapoisett and Rochester would be apportioned on a per pupil basis.

Marion will make school building recommendations to a town meeting September 9th.

JUNIOR RACE

Last Wednesday morning the third race in the August Wednesday Series for Juniors was held by the Mattapoisett Yacht Club with two races each for the Corinthians and the Beetle Cats.

Steve Ruel in Lulu took both the Corinthian races, while Jimmy Barnes and Michelle Roy traded the honors in the Beetle Cat races.

Winds were from the northwest at 12 knots. Ruel led the 4-boat Corinthian fleet around the course in the first race with Billy Mee in Irish Eyes finishing second, and Fred Klein in Iterate, third.

In the second Corinthian race, Ruel's Lulu again led the fleet across the finish line. John Stratton, in Sophrosyne, was second, and Billy Mee, in Irish Eyes, was third.

Michelle Roy in Four Kings was the winner in the first Beetle Cat race, with Jimmy Barnes in Gay Lee Ann II finishing second. Third place went to C. Ruel's Deborah.

In the second race, Jimmy Barnes' Gay Lee Ann II came in first; Michelle Roy's Four Kings, second; and Kathy Pieper's Blue Cloud, third.

WEDNESDAY NIGHT RACE

Sue McGowan, in Hep Cat II, was the victor in the third race in the evening series for Seniors, held by the Mattapoisett Yacht Club, August 21st. Conrad Roy, skippering Four Kings, placed second. C. Ruel's Deborah came in third.

The eleven-boat fleet sailed a course starting in mid-harbor opposite Ned's Point, to Town Anchorage red nun 8, and return to starting point.

Jimmy Barnes, first over the line, was overtaken by C. Ruel during the last half of the first leg of the course. On rounding the first marker, however, Sue McGowan took the lead, followed by Conrad Roy. They maintained these positions throughout the rest of the race.

The next four boats were in close competition for third place. First one and then another was ahead. Finally, C. Ruel was the first to cross the line with all four boats finishing within inches of each other.

OLD MAN'S EVENING RACE

Andy Anderson, skippering Boat, was the winner in the fourth Old Man's Evening Race for Beetle Cats, held Thursday, August 22.

The three-boat fleet sailed a course starting in mid-harbor opposite Ned's Point, to Mattapoisett Neck guide buoy, to Barnard's Wharf guide buoy to finish opposite last marker in mid-harbor.

With a fitful 5-10 mile wind, shifting from south to southwest, the lead, on the first leg of the race, changed as often as did the wind.

Anderson, however, was the first to round the marker at Mattapoisett Neck and he held the lead to the finish. William Mee in Gremlin, came in second, with H. Fisher in Cats Paw, third.

SATURDAY SENIOR RACE

Yankee Too, skippered by Logan Doane, was the first Cruising Class boat to finish in the second race in the August Saturday Senior Series held by the Mattapoisett Yacht Club, August 24th. A protest on the time handi-

Steve Ruel was the winner in both of the two races in the Corinthian Class and Harvey Pentleton posted a double victory in the Beetle Cat division.

Southerly winds at five to 10 knots prevailed during the races.

The Cruising Class sailed from the race committee boat anchored at mid-harbor opposite Ned's Point, to Barstow Rock red nun 6, to Bow Bells can 11, to Nye's Ledge black bell 9A and finish at the race committee boat.

Doane was the first to complete the course with an elapsed time of 1:53.10. Chet Young, in Spindrift, was second to cross the finish line. He was followed by Myron Lewis in Fuzz II.

Steve Ruel led the Corinthians around the course in the first race from the starting line

Billy Mee, In Irish Eyes, was second, and Fred Farnham, in Diana, came in third.

For the second race, the Corinthians sailed from the race committee boat to the Mattapoisett Neck MYC guide buoy, to Barstow Rock red nun 6, to Gallatin Rock black can 3, and finish at the committee boat.

Steve Ruel's Lulu once again led the fleet over the finish line, followed this time by Norman Shackoy's Mox Nix in second place. Henderson's Tern was third.

The course for the first Beetle Cat race was from the race committee boat to the Mattapoisett Neck MYC guide buoy, to Ned's Point MYC guide buoy, to Sunken Ledge black can 5, and finish at race committee boat.

Sue McGowan in Hep Cat II was in the lead during most of the first three legs of the course, but on rounding the last marker she misjudged a port-starboard situation and was disqualified from the race. H. Pentleton in Swamp Fox then took the win, followed by Jimmy Barnes' Gay Lee Ann II in second place. Brian Roderick's Pussy Kat finished third.

For the second race, the Beetle Cats sailed the same course as the Corinthians' second race.

Swamp Fox, with Harvey Pentleton at the helm, finished in first place, with Sue Mc Gowan's Hep Cat II second, and Jimmy Barnes' Gay Lee Ann II, third.

Costume Ball

SUCCESSFUL BALL

The Carriage House of the Mattapoisett Historical Society was launched with a colorful splash on Friday night. The participation was large and almost everyone came in costume. These costumes were marvelously varied. There were hippies, and flappers, Chinese and Spaniards, farmers and bunnies, period dress, Japanese Geisha Girl, Keystone Cop, Dutch girl, firemen, harem dancers, admiral and lady, South Sea Islanders and many others. The Carriage House was filled with dancers and the balcony surrounding the floor was arranged with tables for those looking on. The walls were decorated with giant murals painted for the occasion by Mr. Philip Kelsey and a crew of talented volunteers. Wagon Wheel chandeliers, borrowed from the Blacksmith Shop, and some tipsy lanterns lent a nice light touch to the surroundings. At the

Grange Fair

The annual agriculture fair of Mattapoisett Grange was held last Saturday, August 24th. The display of flowers and vegetables was very good considering that the weather has been dry. The State rosette was given to Joseph Furtado for his display of vegetables. A State Grange rosette to Robert Randall was for his vegetable display in the Junior Department. Another rosette from the State Grange was awarded to Otto Kellish for the basket display of white dahlias.

A supper of ham, baked beans, cole slaw, potato salad, rolls with jello and coffee for dessert was served at 6 P.M.

The auction in the evening was conducted by Otto Kellish assisted by Barry Denham, Mark Harris and Ray Silveria.

The grocery basket went to Mrs. Helmuth

Many things make up the success of a Fair. It doesn't all have to be the financial basis. We of the Grange consider the greatest asset is the friendliness of the day, that makes up the foundation. We pause here and say thank you to all who worked so hard, to the members of the Grange who gave to all the departments of the Fair and to the community who patronized the booths, to Mr. and Mrs. Barney Helfand who gave their time to serve as judges. We thank you.

PHOTOGRAPHY ON DISPLAY

The photography of Norman Fortier will be on display at the Cecil Clark Davis Gallery of the Marion Art Center from August 31 through September 25.

That Norman Fortier has succeeded so well in his task of recording the New England coast is a great tribute to his technical skill. Amateur photographers will know how arduous and frustrating marine photography can be, how many years it takes to assemble a truly representative collection of first-rate yachting negatives. But it should not be forgotten, either, that mere technical skill is useless to a marine photographer, unless he also has a thorough understanding of the sea and ships. Knowing what to photograph is always as important as producing an acceptable print. A lack of knowledge is, simply, fatal.

Norman Fortier's practical education as a marine photographer began at the beginning. His father was a purser on the old Fall River line steamers that ran between New Bedford and New York City, and by the time Fortier owned his first camera (at fifteen years) there was very little of Buzzards Bay he had not explored, ashore or afoot. From 1943 through 1945, Fortier was a U. S. Navy photographer, flying reconnaissance, map-making, patrol and antisubmarine missions

In 1947 he set up his studio and office on South Wharf in the village of South Dartmouth, Massachusetts. At first marine photography was simply a pleasant sideline to his main work as a commercial photographer. But with the rapid expansion of postwar yachting, Fortier found himself increasingly in demand among boat owners. Now over five thousand yachts have gained a measure of immortality

BEACH WATER PRONOUNCED SAFE

The Mattapoisett Board of Health has had the water at the Mattapoisett Public Beach tested by the East Freetown Laboratory. The test shows that the water tested is safe . The lab rates the water at the raft at 70, at the 1/2 way to shore at 350 and 20 feet from shore 920. These numbers represent pollution bacteria organism per 100 milliliters of water. The Mass. Dept. of Public Health allows up to 2400 in natural swimming areas.

The murky appearance of the water lately is due to algae present in the water.

Walpole Society Visits

MEMBERS OF WALPOLE HISTORICAL SOCIETY GUESTS IN MATTAPOISETT

Members of the Walpole Historical Society were guests of the Willis D. McLeans August 20th at their Point Connett summer home and visited the Mattapoisett Historical Society Museum.

The Walpole Historical Society was chartered by the Commonwealth of Massachusetts in 1898. After many years of activity, meetings were discontinued but was reactivated in 1963 under the original charter. Among the early members were such well-known Walpole residents as Mr. and Mrs. Charles Sumner Bird, Messrs. George and J. Edward Plimpton and Mr. Isaac Newton Lewis. Mr. Lewis was the author of an excellent history of Walpole and bequeathed to the Society his large collection of old bibles and ancient parchment documents. Some of these, signed by English and French kings date back to the thirteenth century. One is signed by Louis IX of France who was canonized as St. Louis. There is also a collection of memorabilia re-

Since being reactivated, the Society has been provided with rooms in the Bird Block in East Walpole through the generosity of Charles Sumner Bird, Jr. On display are hundreds of historic items which have come into the possession of the Society. Over 800 historic documents, pictures, maps, newspapers, etc. have been cataloged.

George B. Burnett is president of the Society. Willis D. McLean, a long time summer resident of Mattapoisett, had a prominent part in reactivating the Society.

Jazz Plus Tonight!

The place to be this Wednesday evening, August 28th, is the Marion Art Center where the second Jazz Plus concert of the summer will be presented. As an added feature, the well-known Bud Lilley will be on hand with his saxaphone along with Joe Ponte, piano; Ken Roberge on bass, Tony Periera, clarinet; Jim Hanrahan on the trombone, Frank Barrow, trumpet; and Dick Fairweather on drums.

Dixieland will be featured at this concert, with other types of jazz also represented. See you there!

Where are the Protestors?

Since a giant power has moved into Czechoslovakia to crush its feeble effort to act independently and to keep its people enslaved in a colonial empire, one could expect giant demonstrations throughout the world. Where are the liberals now? The United States is quite a different animal than the Soviet Union. Apparently the Russian Communists enjoy a license to run roughshod over a neighboring country, to occupy it by force, to kill its people and arrest its leaders. The Russians enjoy immunity from the sort of insults that the United States has to endure. Those liberals, who cry for the United States to pull out of Viet Nam, are so silent. Those liberals, who have been busy building bridges to Communism, selling our computers and advanced radar to the Soviets, running cultural exchanges, are silent.

Those who have been watching the news on TV have yet to see one Soviet embassy demonstrated against, one Russian flag defiled, one mass protest of any sort against this outrage.

Apparently, our liberal is color blind. He won't see red.

FLOWER SHOW

A flower show, held on August 20th in the lovely garden of Mrs. George H. Kiesewetter at Crescent Beach, was the final meeting of the class in flower arrangement, conducted by Mrs. Herman W. Richter for the benefit of the Crescent Beach Improvement Association.

National Accredited Amateur Judge Mrs. Hollis Gray of Belmont and Marion viewed and commented on the exhibits, but it had been previously agreed that no formal awards should be made because of the fact that most of the participants were beginners in the art of flower arrangement. However, exhibits by Mrs. Ethel Lougee and Mrs. May Barrie were commended for excellence.

Mrs. Gray's wide experience in arranging and judging was generously shared with the students, who profited greatly from her expert criticism.

Members of the class were May Barrie, Ruth Haskell, Eileen Hickey, Ginny Hoy, Eleanor

Coffee and pastries were served by the hostess, Mrs. Kiesewetter. In spite of the somewhat inclement weather, with a high wind threatening to dislodge the carefully arranged presentations, it was agreed that the entire project, which raised a sizeable amount of money for the Association and developed considerable skill in the participants, was a most successful affair.
